

about Melville

Library Lovers' Day 14 February Competition

Tell us why you love2read and which book has meant the most to you to win a prize! Your comments will help promote reading and literacy in our community during Australia's National Year of Reading 2012. Competition closes Tuesday, 21 February 2012. Enter at your local library or online at www.melvillecity.com.au/libraries.

South of the River Forum – Maintaining Healthy Independent Ageing

You are invited to a free information session to hear an Occupational Therapist, an Audiologist and a Pharmacist explain how each specialty can maximise your quality of life, increase your independence, make your daily living activities easier and increase your wellbeing.

- Date: Monday, 13 February 2012.
Time: 10.00am to 12.00noon.
Venue: Conference Room, Level Two,
Melville Civic Centre,
10 Almondbury Road, Booragoon.
Cost: Free. Includes morning tea.
Bookings: Essential. RSVP by Wednesday, 8 February on 1300 635 845.

Reconciliation Action Plan

The City of Melville is developing a Reconciliation Action Plan during 2012. You are invited to come along to a community information session to hear what the City of Melville is already doing to support reconciliation, and to learn how you can be involved in the development of our plan.

- Date: Monday, 13 February 2012.
Time: 1.00pm to 2.30pm.
Venue: Anne Reid Room, Civic Square Library,
10 Almondbury Road, Booragoon.
Contact: For more information or to RSVP, please contact
Aboriginal Engagement Officer,
Marissa Verma on 9364 0657 or email
Marissa.Verma@melville.wa.gov.au.

