

Age-Friendly Melville

South of the River Forum

End of Life Planning Forum - Vital steps towards peace of mind

Join Melville Cares and a panel of experts who will talk about the legal, emotional, practical, family and community elements of planning ahead so you and your family member can die where you or they choose and be fully prepared.

Start early. Plan ahead. It's not an easy conversation but an important one to have.

This event will include short presentations, a panel discussion, Q&A and morning tea.
