

Street Tree Species Guide

Botanical Name: Ulmus parvifolia

Common Name: Chinese Elm

Origin: Eastern Asia including china, India, Taiwan, Japan, North Korea and Vietnam

Description: A semi deciduous tree in warm climates up to 15 metres in height. A rounded crown with a general upright habit. Leaves are pointed oval shape with serrated margins and are 20-50mm long.

Below: Distinctive mottled bark and serrated leaves of the Chinese Elm

Right: Full form of the Chinese Elm

