During the month of May, we asked the community to help decide which community-led projects should receive a share of $100,000. Participants were able to spend up to $100,000 using budget allocator tool on Melville Talks. Minimum spend of $85,000.00 was required.

More than 2,660 people from across Melville jumped online to review the 13 community-led projects before voting for the projects they felt deserved the funding. This report includes a summary of the engagement findings.

- A total of 2,667 (16,364 votes) submissions were received
- 156 of the submissions were invalid and removed from the final report
- New total of 2,511 submissions (15,720 votes)
