Proposed New Road Names at Carawatha

Ongoing

Thank you for your feedback on the proposed road names for the new subdivision of the former Carawatha Primary School site.

Last Updated: 31 December 2019

About the Engagement

We are proposing to officially name two new roads to be created as a result of subdivision of the former Carawatha Primary School site on Archibald Street, Willagee.

Selected from the Council's adopted Schedule of Names, to meet the naming requirements of Council Policy No. CP - 096 and Landgate's Geographical Names Committee Policies and Standards, the proposed names are:

1. Sumpton Loop – William J Sumpton operated the first bus service in Melville (1924) in the Palmyra/ Melville / Willagee Ward.
2. Utting Lane – Phillip Utting was the first Headmaster of Carawatha Primary School 1959-1972.

How We Engaged with You

Who we engaged with?

We are engaged with the City of Melville community on what they think about the proposed road names for the new subdivision of the former Carawatha Primary School site.

How could you get involved?

A public notice has been placed in the West Australian and Melville Gazette inviting the community to share their feedback on the proposed names:

- Online, using the submission form above
- By email: melinfo@melville.wa.gov.au
- By letter: Chief Executive Officer, City of Melville, Locked Bag 1, Booragoon, WA 6954

In addition the engagement will be shared on City of Melville social media.

What will happen with the feedback from the community?

Feedback from the community will be reported to Council who will make the final decision to endorse the proposed names, the City will then refer the details of the proposal; any submissions received and the minutes of the Council meeting to Landgate for consideration and final approval of the Geographic Names Committee.
