

You're invited to a community workshop with Sonya Elek and Melville City Climate Action Network inc

HOW TO TALK ABOUT CLIMATE CHANGE

Do you want to have meaningful, productive conversations about Climate Change?
Join us for a practical, engaging and supportive workshop designed to build your confidence and communication skills.

Saturday 16th May 2026

1:30pm to 3:30pm

EcoHub – Marlak room (upstairs), 555 Leach Hwy, Winthrop, 6150

In this two-hour interactive workshop, you will build the confidence and skills to talk about climate change in ways that truly connect with people in their life. Learn to:

- Answer the most frequently asked climate questions.
- Respond empathetically and effectively to common climate reactions — from scepticism and apathy to doomism and denial.
- Share your own authentic climate story in a way that motivates and inspires others.
- Break through the “climate silence” - turn everyday conversations into opportunities for change.

Book tickets to secure your place on Humanitix or Pay on the day:

FREE for MCCAN Members and $10 for non-members

(Not a member yet? - join on the day or on our website - just $20 per year)

Light afternoon tea provided

<https://events.humanitix.com/how-to-talk-about-climate-change>

Website: Melvillecitycan.org

Email: melvillecitycan@gmail.com

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/MelvilleCityCAN>

YouTube: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCvCcXkjFg9jSRiMTzNt6-cQ>